

Opening Party
Saturday April 2
12-1PM!

The Neighborhood Grow Center

A greening resource hub for everyone

1224 Wicomico Street Baltimore, MD 21230

FREE WORKSHOPS
PLANT GIVE-AWAYS
GREEN PRODUCTS
TOOL RENTAL

The Neighborhood Grow Center is a month-long series of greening programs happening at Baltimore Community ToolBank.

Every weekend in April there will be workshops, give-aways, and green products for sale, in addition to all of the ToolBank's regular programming.

Tree Baltimore
Tree Give-Away
April 2, 10AM

Community Greening Resource Network
Seedling Give-Away
April 9, 10AM

Chesapeake Bay Foundation
Plant Give-Away
April 16, 12PM

Over 20 free workshops will be offered at the Grow Center, covering topics including:

Accessing City-Owned Land Building Rain Barrels Growing Micro-greens Flower Farming Vermiculture
Permaculture Building Raised Beds Building Outdoor Furniture Soil Health Stormwater Credits

Sign up for free workshops at neighborhoodgrowcenter.eventbrite.com

With support from our partners:

Workshop materials donated by Details Deconstruction and Brick & Board. Additional re-claimed building materials will be available for purchase by Brick & Board. Compost will be available from Chesapeake Compost Works.

For more information, email andrew_cook@baltimorecity.gov or call 410-396-9508. The Neighborhood Grow Center is made possible by a grant from the Chesapeake Bay Trust.